

NC Racial Equity Network Training II:
Challenging Selective Enforcement and Selective Prosecution
December 1, 2017

Time	Session
8:15am–8:45am	Registration with light snack
8:45am–9:00am	Welcome and Announcements NC REN Team
9:00am–9:30am	The Long Struggle Against Racial Profiling in Criminal Law Enforcement (30 min.) James E. Williams, Jr., Founder, NC CRED
9:30am–10:30am	Legal Protections Against the Use of Race and Ethnicity in Policing and Prosecution (60 min.) Emily Coward, NC REN Project Attorney Alyson Grine, NC REN Senior Consultant and Assistant Professor of Law, NCCU School of Law, Durham, NC
10:30am–10:45am	BREAK
10:45am–11:30am	Racial Bias in Policing: What to Look for and What to Do About it (45 min.) John Burris, Founder and Lead Attorney, John L. Burris Law Offices, Oakland, CA
11:30am–12:15pm	Challenging Racialized RDO Charges (45 min.) C. Scott Holmes, Assistant Professor of Law, NCCU School of Law, Durham, NC
12:15pm–1:15pm	LUNCH provided onsite
1:15pm–2:30pm	Using Data to Support Racial Profiling Challenges (75 min.) Ian Mance, Staff Attorney, Southern Coalition for Social Justice, Durham, NC Jason Yoder, Yoder Law PLLC Alyson Grine Emily Coward NC REN Members
2:30pm–3:00pm	Defending Protesters: Strategies and Opportunities (30 min.) Scott Holmes
3:00pm–3:15pm	Break with snack provided
3:15pm–3:45pm	What Records Should you Be Keeping? (30 min.) NC REN Brainstorm Session
3:45pm–4:30pm	Challenging Selective Prosecution of Indigent Defendants (45 min) Elizabeth Gerber, Assistant Public Defender, Mecklenburg County Danny Spiegel, Assistant Appellate Defender