

Racial Equity Network Training IV:
Pretrial Justice and Criminal Justice Debt
June 1, 2018

8:30–8:45	Registration and morning snack
8:45–9:00	Welcome and Announcements Emily Coward, Project Attorney for the NC Racial Equity Network (NC REN), UNC School of Government
9:00–9:45	The Racialized Problem of Pretrial Detention: Causes and Solutions (45 min.) Retired Judge Gregory Weeks
9:45-10:45	Panel Discussion: Pretrial Innovation in North Carolina (60 min.) Yolanda Fair, Assistant Public Defender, Buncombe County Caitlin Fenhagen, Orange County Criminal Justice Resource Director Jennifer Marsh, Attorney with Self-Help Credit Union Danny Spiegel, Senior Legal Counsel, Fair Punishment Project Moderated by Alyson Grine, Senior Advisor to NC REN and Assistant Professor, NCCU School of Law
10:45-11:00	BREAK
11:00-12:00	Costs, Fines and Fees: Protecting Clients from Criminal Justice Debt (60 min.) Jamie Markham, Associate Professor of Public Law and Government, UNC School of Government Cristina Becker, ACLU Criminal Justice Debt Fellow
12:00-1:00	LUNCH provided on-site
1:00-1:30	Community-Led Efforts to Achieve Bail Reform Isaac Villegas, Volunteer, Southerners on New Ground (SONG)
1:30-2:45	Effective Pretrial Advocacy: Break Out Sessions and Demonstration (75 min.) Allyn Sharp, Law Offices of Allyn Sharp Retired Judge Gregory Weeks
2:45-3:00	BREAK with light snack provided
3:00-4:00	Seeking Pretrial Justice through Constitutional Litigation: Challenging Financial Barriers to Diversion (60 min.) Dami Animashaun, Civil Rights Corps
4:00-4:30	Call to Action (30 min.) Kevin Tully, Chief Public Defender, Mecklenburg County
4:30-4:35	Closing Announcements and Adjourn