

NC REN Training VI: Seeking Racial Justice at Sentencing and NC REN Wrap Up December 7, 2018

8:30–8:45	Registration
8:45–9:00	Welcome and Announcements Emily Coward, Project Attorney for the NC Racial Equity Network, UNC School of Government
9:00–10:00	Racial Disparities in Sentencing: Policy Making for the World We Want to Live In (60 min.) Dr. Traci Schlesinger, Associate Professor of Sociology, DePaul University
10:00-10:45	Expanding Your Sentencing Toolkit (45 min.) Jamie Markham, Associate Professor of Public Law and Government, UNC School of Government
10:45-11:00	BREAK
11:00-12:00	Sentencing, Storytelling, and the Lawyer/Client Relationship (60 min.) David Singleton, Executive Director, Ohio Justice Policy Center
12:00-1:00	LUNCH provided on-site
1:00-2:15	Addressing Systemic Racism and Implicit Bias in Sentencing (75 min.) Lauren Miller, Staff Attorney, NCPLS, Inc. Mary Pollard, Executive Director, NCPLS, Inc. Dr. Eric Howard, Director of Student Services, Equity, Athletics, and Safety, Asheville City Schools
2:15-3:15	What’s Next for the Members of NC REN? Operationalizing Our Learning (60 min.) NC REN Attorneys, facilitated by Gita Gulati-Partee, Founder and President, Open Source Leadership
3:15-3:30	BREAK with light snack provided
3:30-4:30	We Are NC REN: Interactive PowerPoint Presentation and Closing Ceremony NC REN Attorneys, Facilitated by Emily Coward

CLE HOURS: 5 CLE GENERAL