

NC REN Annual Convening: Advancing Racial Equity, Building Community, and Changing the Narrative

December 6, 2019

8:15–8:45	Registration
8:45–9:00	Welcome and Announcements Emily Coward, NC Racial Equity Network Project Attorney, UNC School of Government
9:00–10:00	Interactive Restorative Justice Circles (60 min.) Elizabeth Hambourger and Erica Washington, Staff Attorneys, Center for Death Penalty Litigation
10:00–11:00	Restorative Justice in North Carolina: From Vision to Reality (60 min.) Elizabeth Hambourger and Erica Washington
11:00–11:15	BREAK
11:15–11:45	Race and the Fourth Amendment: Updates from Recent North Carolina Cases (30 min.) Kellie Mannette, Law Office of Kellie Mannette Warren Hynson, Associate, Allen, Moore & Rogers, LLP
11:45–12:15	Unwinding Racialized Mass Incarceration: Strategies for Addressing Extreme Sentences (30 min.) Henderson Hill, REDRESS Ben Finholt, NCPLS
12:15–1:15	LUNCH provided on-site
1:15–2:00	Challenging the Discriminatory Prosecution of Voters in North Carolina (45 min.) John Carella, Carella Legal Services, PLLC Lanisha Bratcher
2:00–2:30	Leading Brave Conversations about Racial Equity with Local Stakeholders (30 min.) Yolanda Fair, Buncombe County Assistant Public Defender and co-chair, Buncombe Criminal Justice Equity Work Group NC REN Attorneys
2:30–2:45	BREAK
2:45–3:30	Race Consciousness in Indigent Defense (45 min.) Heather Pinckney, Partner, Harden & Pinckney, and Director of Training, Black Public Defender Association
3:30–4:30	Impeaching a Police Officer on Racial Bias (Demonstration) (60 min.) Scott Holmes, Associate Clinical Professor of Law, North Carolina Central School of Law
4:30–4:40	Closing NC REN Attorneys

CLE HOURS: 6 GENERAL (PENDING APPROVAL)